at a hearing for an

EMERGENCY TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

Honorable Judge Neal Nielsen presiding

Vilas County Court House

330 Court Street

Eagle River, WI

March 6, 2009

Friday

1:30 p.m. CST

The sole purpose of this hearing is for the Court to decide whether it should order Conserve to stay open next year for all four grades. If successful, this would put a stop to the transition while the underlying issues are litigated.

A hearing for a permanent injunction will likely take place in the next 90 days concerning a restructuring of the trust and school's boards, among other issues.

“Conserve School was founded in 2002 to fulfill James R. Lowenstine's dream of creating a school at which children could be offered a comprehensive college preparatory education with a special emphasis on nature studies.”
