

Attorney General Will Not Appeal Nielsen's Ruling

Written by Greg Mlynarczyk
Thursday, 16 July 2009 14:49 -

J.B. Van Hollen announced he will not appeal Judge Nielsen's ruling. According to a story on the AP wire, he claims that even if he would win on appeal the case could drag on for more than a year - and by that time most of the affected students would have found another school already.

This is a rather disappointing outcome, as Van Hollen is mistaken about who is "affected" by his decision not to appeal. Many students were forced to make decisions for next year a long time ago, and his choosing not to appeal doesn't affect any of them. There are thousands of people still "affected" - future generations of high school students.

<http://www.wkowtv.com/Global/story.asp?S=10737900>